This week, our Dance Club and Year 6 superstars lit up the stage at the Albany Theatre! Their energy, talent, and hard work shone through every move—and those smiles made the late night absolutely worth it!

A huge thank you to Mrs Graham for making this event possible, and to Mrs Moss and Miss Francis for their incredible support on the night. We couldn't have done it without you! A video of the performance will be available soon on our website—don't miss it!

You could be part of the excitement next year! Join our Dance Club (Years 3–6) every Monday after school and start your journey to the stage!

Next week we enter December and have lots of festive opportunities across the school;

12.12.25 -Christmas craft with parents 2pm

17.12.25 – Y2 Nativity to parents 2:15pm

17.12.25 – Y5/6 Carol performance for parents 3:45pm

18.12.25 – Nursery Christmas songs to parents 11:30am

18.12.25 – Reception Christmas songs to parents 2:45pm

We know there are lots of bugs going around right now, but being in school is so important! Please continue to send your child in—if they become unwell during the day, we'll contact you straight away. Often, spending time with friends and learning together is just the boost they need to feel better. Every day in school makes a big difference!

Have a wonderful weekend and we look forward to seeing you all back on Monday, remember, Everyone, Everyday! That's how we make a difference!
