Head's Headlines

Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing to introduce myself as I take on the role of Interim Headteacher at Gosford Park for the next two terms. For the past eight years, I have been Headteacher at All Saints School. During this time, I have immersed myself in the local community and developed a deep love for this very special area.

It is a real privilege to now be joining the Gosford Park community. I am very excited to get to know you and your families, and to work together to ensure the very best for your children. I have already spent time in school this week, and I have been so impressed by the children. They demonstrate a genuine love of learning and a joyful enthusiasm for school life.

I also want to reassure you that I come with a real respect for the excellent work already happening at Gosford Park. My role will be to support, strengthen, and build upon the great foundations already in place, always keeping your children at the heart of everything we do.

You will often see me on the school gate at the beginning and end of the day, as I believe this is such an important time to connect with children and parents. I am really looking forward to meeting you there and sharing in those everyday moments that make school life so special.

We are going to have a wonderful time learning, growing, and achieving together. I look forward to building strong relationships with you all as we begin this journey.

With warm regards,
Cara Page
Interim Headteacher

NSPCC PANTS Lessons- these are taking place in school over the next few weeks

Talk PANTS:
Teaching Guidance

This guidance accompanies the NSPCC's Talk PANTS programme for primary schools and childcare settings across the UK. Aimed at children aged 3-11, the lessons introduce the concepts of bodily autonomy, consent, and help-seeking. Through teaching relevant, age-appropriate knowledge, understanding and skills, these lessons reinforce the NSPCC's commitment to helping children to:

- recognise private parts of the body and their rights over their own body
- understand the importance of consent and their right to say no
- build their confidence to speak out when upset or worried
- know how to get help, and the sources of help available to them, including through Childline and the Childline Kids website.

Please read and consider this guidance before teaching the lessons.

Introduction
About the campaign

More details about the campaign, including guidance for parents, a film featuring our friendly dinosaur mascot Pantosaurus, and story book can be accessed here: nspcc.org.uk/pants
