

Gosford Park Primary School

Relationships and Sex Education Policy

Contents

1. Aims	3
2. Statutory requirements	3
3. Policy development.....	3
4. Definition	4
5. Curriculum	4
6. Delivery of RSE	5
7. Roles and responsibilities	5
8. Parents' right to withdraw	7
9. Training	7
10. Monitoring arrangements.....	7
11. Linked Policies
Appendix 1: Curriculum map	9
Appendix 2: By the end of primary school pupils should know	11
Appendix 3: Parent form: withdrawal from sex education within RSE	14

1. Aims

At Gosford Park, we believe that children are all individuals and therefore, we foster an environment of mutual respect, responsibility and nurturing self-esteem in a happy, safe and caring atmosphere. We aim to create an ethos that is rooted in acceptance, kindness, generosity and helpfulness where diversity is accepted and celebrated by all stakeholders. We want children to leave Gosford Park proud of their own personal identity and a sense of belonging and high self-worth. The teaching and learning of RSE at Gosford Park supports and upholds this vision.

The aims of relationships and sex education (RSE) at Gosford Park are to:

- Provide a framework in which sensitive discussions can take place
- Prepare pupils for puberty, and give them an understanding of sexual development and the importance of health and hygiene
- Help pupils develop feelings of self-respect, confidence and empathy
- Create a positive culture around issues of sexuality and relationships
- Teach pupils the correct vocabulary to describe themselves and their bodies

2. Statutory requirements

As a maintained primary school we must provide relationships education to all pupils as per section 34 of the Children and Social work act 2017.

However, we are not required to provide sex education but we do need to teach the elements of sex education contained in the science curriculum.

In teaching RSE, we must have regard to guidance issued by the secretary of state as outlined in section 403 of the Education Act 1996.

At Gosford Park we teach RSE as set out in this policy.

3. Policy development

This policy has been developed in consultation with staff, pupils and parents. The consultation and policy development process involved the following steps:

1. Review – the PSHE and RSE leaders pulled together all relevant information including relevant national and local guidance with support from an experienced SLE.
2. Staff consultation – all school staff were given the opportunity to look at the policy and make recommendations.
3. Parent/stakeholder consultation – parents and any interested parties were invited to attend a meeting about the policy.
4. Pupil consultation – we investigated what exactly pupils want from their RSE using a pupil voice activity with support from the class teachers.
5. Ratification – once amendments were made, the policy was shared with governors and ratified

4. Definition

- RSE is about the emotional, social and cultural development of pupils, and involves learning about relationships, different types of relationships, healthy relationships, different types of family and people who care for us and those who we can trust.
- RSE is also about sexual health, sexuality, healthy lifestyles, diversity and personal identity.
- RSE involves a combination of sharing information, and exploring issues and values.
- RSE is not about the promotion of sexual activity, belief or orientation.
- RSE at Gosford Park scientifically explores the way humans reproduce.
- RSE encourages children to recognise sexual abuse, and what they should do if they are worried about any sexual matters.

5. Curriculum

Our curriculum is set out as per Appendix 1 but we may need to adapt it as and when necessary.

We have developed the curriculum in consultation with parents, pupils and staff, taking into account the age, needs and feelings of pupils.

Primary sex education at Gosford Park will focus on:

- Preparing boys and girls for the changes that adolescence brings
- How a baby is conceived and born

For more information about our curriculum, see our curriculum map in Appendix 1.

Dealing with questions

Teachers will establish clear parameters of what is appropriate and inappropriate in a whole class setting. (again, maybe discussion with staff?) agreed

Guidelines for answering pupil questions:

- If a question is too personal, the teacher will remind the pupil of our class charter. If a pupil requires further support, the teacher can refer him or her to the appropriate person, which in the first instance should be the family support worker.
- If a teacher doesn't know the answer to a question, if appropriate the teacher should acknowledge this and suggest that the pupil, the teacher or both together research the question (dependent on content).
- If a question is too explicit, age inappropriate, inappropriate for the whole class or raises safeguarding concerns, the teacher should acknowledge the question and promise to speak to the child individually. To maintain trust and respect the teacher must remember to speak to the pupil at the earliest opportunity. In the instance of a safeguarding concern, the teacher will follow the schools safeguarding procedures. The teacher will also speak to the parents in a private setting.
- Parent consent to answer age-inappropriate questions?
- Signposting will take part at the end of every session to ensure pupils understand their trusted adults and where to find information in a safe way.

6. Delivery of RSE

RSE at Gosford Park is taught in a variety of contexts:

- Our main delivery of RSE is through our PSHE curriculum, which constitutes:
 - Whole school assembly to launch a question every other week linked to the PSHE focus
 - 1 PSHE lesson in class with class teacher following the curriculum map objectives
 - Every 2 weeks a class assembly focused on a picture/ story from the news that promotes the question of the week and the discussion links to the British values.

- Some aspects of RSE are also taught through other subject areas (e.g. science, PE and computing) which we believe contribute significantly to children's knowledge and understanding of their own bodies, and how they are changing and developing.
- On some occasions RSE sessions may be blocked in to a day/ week.
- Where appropriate, children may take part in sessions lead by visitors to school where it is felt this will enhance the provision
- Lessons are differentiated appropriately to meet the needs of all children. The SENDCO advises teachers on how to appropriately meet the needs of SEND children.
- Class teachers will ensure that they have the ability to teach certain areas of the curriculum without letting their personal beliefs and attitudes affect them. If they have concerns regarding this then they must report this to a member of the Senior Leadership Team.

Relationships education focuses on teaching the fundamental building blocks and characteristics of positive relationships including:

- Families and people who care for me
- Caring friendships
- Respectful relationships
- Online relationships
- Being safe

These areas of learning are taught within the context of family life taking care to ensure that there is no stigmatisation of children based on their home circumstances (families can include single parent families, LGBT parents, families headed by grandparents, adoptive parents, foster parents/carers amongst other structures) along with reflecting sensitively that some children may have a different structure of support around them (for example: looked after children or young carers).

7. Roles and responsibilities

7.1 The governing board

The governing board will approve the RSE policy, and hold the headteacher to account for its implementation.

7.2 The headteacher

The headteacher is responsible for ensuring that RSE is taught consistently across the school, and for managing requests to withdraw pupils from non-statutory components of RSE (see section 8). The PSHE leader and wider SLT will support the headteacher in this role.

It is the responsibility of the headteacher, with the support of the PSHE leader to ensure that both staff and parents/carers are informed about our sex education policy, and that the policy is implemented effectively. It is also the head teacher's responsibility to ensure that members of staff are given sufficient training, so that they can teach about sex effectively, and handle any difficult issues with sensitivity.

Alongside the PSHE leader, the headteacher liaises with external agencies regarding the school sex education programme, and ensures that all adults who work with our children on these issues are aware of the school policy, and work within its framework.

The headteacher monitors this policy on a regular basis, and reports to governors, when requested, on the effectiveness of the policy.

7.3 Staff

Staff are responsible for:

- Timetabling RSE appropriately so that all children in their care receive adequate and appropriate RSE. Timetabling issues should be addressed with the headteacher and are not a valid reason to not teach RSE.
- Delivering RSE in a sensitive way
- Modelling positive attitudes to RSE
- Establishing an open and supportive environment for children to discuss topics, using the PSHE class charter set up at the beginning of the year to support this
- Monitoring and reporting on children's progress
- Responding to the needs of individual pupils and adapting lessons to support this
- Responding appropriately to pupils whose parents wish them to be withdrawn from the non-statutory components of RSE

Staff do not have the right to opt out of teaching RSE. Staff who have concerns about teaching RSE are encouraged to discuss this with the headteacher.

Class teachers will be responsible for teaching RSE in our school.

7.4 Pupils

Pupils are expected to engage fully in RSE and, when discussing issues related to RSE, treat others with respect and sensitivity.

Pupils are expected to follow the PSHE class charter at all times.

Pupils are encouraged to speak to a trusted adult if they have any concerns or feel uncomfortable discussing a topic. This will be signposted by the class teacher at the end of each lesson.

7.5 Parents and carers

The school is well aware that the primary role in children's sex education lies with parents and carers. We therefore wish to build a positive and supporting relationship with the parents and carers of children at our school, through mutual understanding, trust and cooperation.

To promote this objective, we:

- Inform parents and carers about the school's sex education policy and practice and encourage them to be involved in reviewing the school policy,
- Answer any questions that parents or carers may have about the sex education of their child,
- Take seriously any issue that parents or carers raise with teachers or governors about this policy, or about the arrangements for sex education in the school,

- Inform parents and carers about the best practice known with regard to sex education, so that the teaching in school supports the key messages that parents and carers give to children at home.

We believe that through this mutual exchange of knowledge and information, children will benefit from being given consistent messages about their changing bodies and their increasing responsibilities.

8. Parents' right to withdraw

Parents do not have the right to withdraw their children from relationships education.

Parents have the right to withdraw their children from the non-statutory components of sex education within RSE.

Requests for withdrawal should be put in writing using the form found in Appendix 3 of this policy and addressed to the headteacher.

Alternative work will be given to pupils who are withdrawn from sex education.

At Gosford Park, the non-statutory aspects of PSHE taught are:

- How a baby is conceived.
- Pregnancy and birth.

9. Training

Staff training needs are reviewed by the Headteacher and PSHE leader on an ongoing basis through staff voice, performance management and monitoring arrangements.

The headteacher may invite visitors from outside the school, such as school nurses or sexual health professionals, to provide support and training to staff teaching RSE.

10. Monitoring arrangements

The delivery of RSE is monitored by the SLT and PSHE leaders through learning walks, pupil interviews and school council discussions.

Pupils' development in RSE is monitored by class teachers as part of our internal assessment systems.

This policy will be reviewed by the RSE lead and SLT annually. At every review, the policy will be shared with parents and staff, who will be given the opportunity to express their views. The policy will be approved by the Senior Leadership Team and the school Governors.

11. Linked Policies

This policy links to the following policies and procedures:

- Personal, Social, Health and Economic Education (PSHE) Policy
- Anti-Bullying Policy
- Behaviour Policy
- Teaching and Learning Policy
- Safeguarding Policy
- SEN Policy

Appendix 1: Relationships and Sex Education Curriculum overview

	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
Family and relationships	• Introduction to RSE • What is family? • What are friendships? • Family and friends help and support each other • Making friends • Friendship problems • Healthy Friendships	• Introduction to RSE • Families offer stability and love • Families are all different • Managing friendships • Unhappy friendships • Valuing me • Manners & courtesy • Loss and change	• Introduction to RSE • Healthy families • Friendships - conflict • Effective communication • Learning who to trust • Respecting differences • Stereotyping	• Introduction to RSE • Respect & manners • Healthy friendships • My behaviour • Bullying • Stereotypes • Families in the wider world • Loss and change	• Introduction to RSE • Build a friend • Resolving conflict • Respecting myself • Family life • Bullying	• Introduction to RSE • Respect • Developing respectful relationships • Stereotypes • Bullying • Being me • Loss and change
Safety and the changing body	• Getting lost • Making a call to the emergency services • Asking for help • Appropriate contact • Medication • Safety at home • People who help to keep us safe	• The Internet • Communicating online • Secrets and surprises • Appropriate contact • Road safety • Drug education	• Basic first aid • Communicating safely online • Online safety • Fake emails • Drugs, alcohol & tobacco • Keeping safe out and about	• Online restrictions • Share aware • Basic first aid • Privacy and secrecy • Consuming information online • The changing adolescent body (puberty)	• Online friendships • Identifying online dangers • The changing adolescent body (puberty, including menstruation) • First aid • Drug education	• Drugs alcohol & tobacco • First aid • Critical digital consumers • Social media • The changing adolescent body (puberty, conception, birth)
Health and wellbeing	• Wonderful me • What am I like? • Ready for bed • Relaxation • Hand washing & personal hygiene • Sun safety • Allergies • People who help us stay healthy	• Experiencing different emotions • Being active • Relaxation • Steps to success • Growth mindset • Healthy diet • Dental health	• My healthy diary • Relaxation • Who am I? • My superpowers • Breaking down barriers • Dental health	• Diet and dental health • Visualisation • Celebrating mistakes • My role • My happiness • Emotions • Mental health	• Relaxation • The importance of rest • Embracing failure • Going for goals • Taking responsibility for my feelings • Healthy meals • Sun safety	• What can I be? • Mindfulness • Taking responsibility for my health • Resilience toolkit • Immunisation • Health concerns • Creating habits • The effects of technology on health

Appendix 2: By the end of primary school pupils should know

TOPIC	PUPILS SHOULD KNOW
Families and people who care about me	• That families are important for children growing up because they can give love, security and stability • The characteristics of healthy family life, commitment to each other, including in times of difficulty, protection and care for children and other family members, the importance of spending time together and sharing each other's lives • That others' families, either in school or in the wider world, sometimes look different from their family, but that they should respect those differences and know that other children's families are also characterised by love and care • That stable, caring relationships, which may be of different types, are at the heart of happy families, and are important for children's security as they grow up • That marriage represents a formal and legally recognised commitment of two people to each other which is intended to be lifelong • How to recognise if family relationships are making them feel unhappy or unsafe, and how to seek help or advice from others if needed
Caring friendships	• How important friendships are in making us feel happy and secure, and how people choose and make friends • The characteristics of friendships, including mutual respect, truthfulness, trustworthiness, loyalty, kindness, generosity, trust, sharing interests and experiences and support with problems and difficulties • That healthy friendships are positive and welcoming towards others, and do not make others feel lonely or excluded • That most friendships have ups and downs, and that these can often be worked through so that the friendship is repaired or even strengthened, and that resorting to violence is never right • How to recognise who to trust and who not to trust, how to judge when a friendship is making them feel unhappy or uncomfortable, managing conflict, how to manage these situations and how to seek help or advice from others, if needed

TOPIC	PUPILS SHOULD KNOW
Respectful relationships	• The importance of respecting others, even when they are very different from them (for example, physically, in character, personality or backgrounds), or make different choices or have different preferences or beliefs • Practical steps they can take in a range of different contexts to improve or support respectful relationships • The conventions of courtesy and manners • The importance of self-respect and how this links to their own happiness • That in school and in wider society they can expect to be treated with respect by others, and that in turn they should show due respect to others, including those in positions of authority • About different types of bullying (including cyberbullying), the impact of bullying, responsibilities of bystanders (primarily reporting bullying to an adult) and how to get help • What a stereotype is, and how stereotypes can be unfair, negative or destructive • The importance of permission-seeking and giving in relationships with friends, peers and adults
Online relationships	• That people sometimes behave differently online, including by pretending to be someone they are not • That the same principles apply to online relationships as to face-to face relationships, including the importance of respect for others online including when we are anonymous • The rules and principles for keeping safe online, how to recognise risks, harmful content and contact, and how to report them • How to critically consider their online friendships and sources of information including awareness of the risks associated with people they have never met • How information and data is shared and used online
Being safe	• What sorts of boundaries are appropriate in friendships with peers and others (including in a digital context) • About the concept of privacy and the implications of it for both children and adults; including that it is not always right to keep secrets if they relate to being safe • That each person's body belongs to them, and the differences between appropriate and inappropriate or unsafe physical, and other, contact • How to respond safely and appropriately to adults they may encounter (in all contexts, including online) whom they do not know • How to recognise and report feelings of being unsafe or feeling bad about any adult • How to ask for advice or help for themselves or others, and to keep trying until they are heard • How to report concerns or abuse, and the vocabulary and confidence needed to do so • Where to get advice e.g. family, school and/or other sources

Appendix 3: Parent form: withdrawal from sex education within RSE

TO BE COMPLETED BY PARENTS
Name of child		Class
Name of parent		Date
Reason for withdrawing from sex education within relationships and sex education
Any other information you would like the school to consider
Parent signature

TO BE COMPLETED BY THE SCHOOL
Agreed actions from discussion with parents	Include notes from discussions with parents and agreed actions taken. Eg: Joe Bloggs will be taking part in all relationships lessons and during the sex education lessons, he will be working independently on a project in the Year 5 classroom